

Restaurants & Chefs

The Best 'Diners, Drive-Ins And Dives' Restaurant In Every State

Consider this your roadmap to Flavortown.

BY CHARLOTTE CHILTON PUBLISHED: OCT 21, 2021

🔖 SAVE ARTICLE

Picking a restaurant to grab a bite at can be difficult—especially if you're out of town. That's why we love the Food Network show Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives. Whether you're headed out on a road trip or you just want to explore the DDD-worthy restaurants in your local area, let Guy Fieri show you where to dine. Crunched on time? We've compiled a list of the must-eat Triple D spots in every state—and what to order once you get there.

5

California: Gott's Roadside

nickmorisi
1,510 followers

View profile

This roadside burger joint in Saint Helena, California marries gourmet flavors with fast-food favorites. While there are all sorts of mouth-watering menu items, the Napa Valley spot is known for its burgers—specifically, the Wisconsin Burger, which is topped with mushrooms, bacon, and gooey cheddar cheese.

Gott's Roadside Tray Gourmet, Saint Helena, California